Summertime at The Royal Horticultural Halls

08/07/09

'Summertime, and the livin' is easy...' goes that old Gershwin number - and now you can make your summer even easier with The Royal Horticultural Halls and Conference Centre. If you're looking for the perfect venue to host your summer event and want to stray from the conventional and lacklustre, look no further than The Glasshouse. Perfect for summer parties, this elegant garden under glass has been enjoyed by National Savings and Investments (NS&I), Classic FM and the Women's Institute. It offers a unique location in one of the UK's best known gardens, RHS Wisley - and you can guarantee the climate will be perfect all year round.

Guests can walk around the stunning lake and, if there is a summer downpour, can retreat inside to enjoy the idyllic views of the lake and its beautiful surroundings. So whether you're looking to host an intimate dinner for 80 or a drinks reception for 500, The Glasshouse is a guarantee that the day will be a memorable one.

And while The Glasshouse presents all the pleasures of the countryside, the Halls in Victoria offer an oasis of calm in the heart of central London. With plenty of character this dynamic and versatile space is great value for money and can be transformed to suit any event. What more do you need for a hassle-free summer?
